Career Counseling

The objective of Career Counseling is to guide students in identifying the right legal career path, help in spanning the gap between academic learning and professional goals, and encourage students to pursue higher studies, judiciary, corporate law, or civil services. The services offered include one-on-one counseling sessions providing personalized career advice, workshops and seminars on CV building, interview skills, and legal careers, career path guidance covering judiciary, law firms, NGOs, teaching, and more, support for higher education including LAT-PG, UGC-NET, and LLM entrance preparation, and placement assistances. through internships, advocate connections, and job leads. Collaborations and support involve guest talks by judges, senior advocates, and alumni, links with law firms, NGOs, and corporate legal departments, and continuous mentoring by faculty members and legal professionals. The impact of these services is that they boost student confidence and clarity about career options, improve employability and professionalism, and encourage the pursuit of competitive exams and prestigious roles.
